Croatia and the Dalmatian Coast lie back in a expanse of culture. It is a fact that both Croatia and the Dalmatian Coast are self-proclaimed Roman land and alluring cities. Further beyond the hustle and bustle of Zagreb, Croatia’s capital, lies the picture perfect town of Plitvice Lakes National Park. With a stunning diversity of flora and fauna, the park is considered one of the most beautiful places on earth. The park is home to over 130 species of birds, 6 species of mammals and 4 species of reptiles. The park is also home to the majestic terraced waterfalls, which are continually reforming, so the constant changing hues of the lakes are ever changing. The park covers 115 square miles. The lakes descend roughly 425 feet from the uppermost lake to the lowest. The waterfalls are continually reforming, so the constantly changing hues of the lakes are ever changing. Croatia and the Dalmatian Coast have long been a source of inspiration for artists and writers. The region's stunning landscapes and unique culture have earned it a place on UNESCO's list of World Heritage sites. The crooked coastline, with its white pebble beaches, offers a perfect escape from the hustle and bustle of modern life. From the ancient cities to the unspoiled islands, there's something for everyone in this breathtaking destination.

Program Highlights

- Croatia's Countryside: Enjoy a visit to Plitvice Lakes National Park, where you'll witness its vividly hued lakes and waterfalls. A unique interplay of light and stone, these stunning natural wonders are a must-see for any nature lover.
- Dubrovnik: Explore the historic city of Dubrovnik, the pearl of the Adriatic. Discover the cellars, temple ruins, peristyle, the great mart, and visit its small apothecary, the oldest in the world. Don't miss the monumental Romanesque cloister of the Franciscan Monastery.
- Split: Discover the ancient harbor of Split and delight in the city's living ruin of Diocletian's Palace, which has been continuously inhabited since the Roman era. Convert into a public theater in 1612, part of the Chamber Theatre. The ancient harbor and its surroundings are a must-see for anyone interested in history and architecture.
- Zagreb: Enjoy a guided tour of Zagreb, the capital of Croatia. Visit the iconic St. Mark's Church, originally erected in the 14th century. Zagreb today is a modern city with a rich cultural heritage and a vibrant nightlife.
- Plitvice Lakes National Park: Explore one of the world's most beautiful National Parks. Home to sixteen opalescent lakes cascading from one to the other, these lakes shimmer in vibrant, constantly changing colors. Visit the park and witness its vividly hued lakes and waterfalls.
- Sirmium: Visit the site of Sirmium, the ancient capital of the Roman Empire in the area. Discover the remains of Diocletian's Palace, including its cellars and temple ruins. Visit the Fragment of the Forum of the Augustales.
- Trogir: Discover the town of Trogir, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit the Cathedral of St. Lawrence, which was first built in the 12th century and then enlarged in the 16th century. Trogir is known for its narrow streets and impressive architecture.
- Heavenly Hvar: Discover the charming island of Hvar, which has a unique sea breeze, ideal for sailing and other water sports. Enjoy a ferry ride to Hvar, where you'll discover its ancient harbor and its surroundings.
- Zagreb to Split: Journey to the Adriatic coast, where you'll discover the ancient city of Split. Visit the Cathedral of St. Dominus, which is home to many rare, endemic species. Enjoy a ferry ride to Hvar, where you'll enjoy the island's unique sea breeze, ideal for sailing and other water sports.

Educational Focus: Learn about traditional Croatian cuisine, including black storks, endangered European brown bears, and other species. Discover the significance of the city of Zagreb in Croatia's history.

ACCOMMODATIONS

- The Esplanade Zagreb: Ideally located in the city center, this five-star hotel offers a relax and refresh with a trip to the spa or a dip in the indoor pool. The hotel has two fine-dining restaurants, offering Croatian and international cuisine, served with complimentary Wi-Fi.
- Grand Villa Argentina: The luxurious hotel puts you in the center of the action. The hotel has a fitness center and spa. Complimentary Wi-Fi is available.
