CRUISE ITINERARY

Cruise the Inside Passage

• Start your voyage from San Francisco and travel the mile-wide strait to the southernmost tip of the Inside Passage and the renowned Hubbard Glacier. The ice in Glacier Bay fell as snow centuries ago on the slopes of Mount Saint Elias and the North St. Elias Range, today the second highest mountain range in the United States. The ice from the glacier, which is 30 miles wide, 300 feet high, and 3,000 feet thick, flows into the sea, creating a spectacular sight of icebergs and glistening glaciers. Take a “jumbo jet” helicopter tour of the Hubbard Glacier and see the ice face up close. The crystal-clear ice glistens in the sunlight as it flows into the sea, creating a breathtaking sight. The icebergs and glaciers provide a stunning backdrop for the Inside Passage, making it one of the most beautiful places in the world.

• Cruise the Inside Passage is a land of rugged magnificence. The landscape of the Inside Passage is characterized by rugged mountains, glaciers, and icebergs. The Inside Passage meanders between dense forests, mountainous peaks, and rugged cliffs, creating a unique and breathtaking landscape. The Inside Passage is a popular destination for cruise ships, with many ships offering scenic tours and helicopter rides to see the glaciers and icebergs up close. The Inside Passage is a land of wonder and natural beauty, offering a unique and unforgettable experience.

• Start your voyage from San Francisco and travel the mile-wide strait to the southernmost tip of the Inside Passage and the renowned Hubbard Glacier. The ice in Glacier Bay fell as snow centuries ago on the slopes of Mount Saint Elias and the North St. Elias Range, today the second highest mountain range in the United States. The ice from the glacier, which is 30 miles wide, 300 feet high, and 3,000 feet thick, flows into the sea, creating a spectacular sight of icebergs and glistening glaciers. Take a “jumbo jet” helicopter tour of the Hubbard Glacier and see the ice face up close. The crystal-clear ice glistens in the sunlight as it flows into the sea, creating a breathtaking sight. The icebergs and glaciers provide a stunning backdrop for the Inside Passage, making it one of the most beautiful places in the world.

Biking involves a lot of effort, especially when you're carrying a heavy backpack. It can be physically demanding, and you need to be fit and in good health to participate. If you have any medical conditions or concerns about your fitness level, it's important to consult with your doctor before starting any biking activity.

In the case of damaged gear, make sure you take photos of the damage before repairs are made. This will serve as evidence if you need to file a claim later on.

3. In case of spoiled food, it is important to maintain a cool and sterile environment to prevent further deterioration.

4. For cuts and scrapes, use a sterile bandage and keep the area clean to prevent infection. If the wound is deep or bleeding doesn't stop, seek medical attention.

By following these safety precautions, you can ensure a safe and enjoyable biking experience.

Best regards,
