Program Highlights
- Immerse yourself in the unspoilad natural beauty, diverse wildlife, and dramatic tales of this unique ecosystem during this exclusive small group expedition (maximum 18 guests) to Yellowstone in winter.
- Scout for wolves from the warmth of a heated vehicle—Yellowstone is considered the best wolf-watching habitat in the country.
- Join an expert Orbridge Expedition Leader and professional researcher, guides, learn informed perspectives and first-person accounts of the wolves’ habitats, survival, and ecologies.
- Keep binoculars close at hand: this is the “Serengeti of North America,” roamed by resident bison, elk, pronghorn, bighorn sheep, moose, and other wildlife.
- Experience Yellowstone in its winter incarnation: a world with frozen “geyser rain,” ghost trees with a frosty glass, surprising winter wildflowers, and dynamic geothermal features set in snow and ice.
- Enjoy a private, after-hours visit at the Museum of the Rockies, where the area’s natural history is highlighted by one of the most important collections of dinosaur fossils in the world.
- What’s included: 6 nights accommodations with luggage portage; 6 breakfasts; 5 lunches, and 6 dinners; admission and park fees throughout; all gratuities, and airport transfers for guests arriving and departing during the suggested times.
