Mustafa K. Abadan B ARCH '82, M ARCH '84 (New York, NY)

Raised and educated in Turkey, Germany, and the United States, Mustafa is a partner in the world-rekowned architectural firm of Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP (SOM),* where he specializes in designing complex and challenging projects around the world. Mustafa has been active in philanthropic and civic organizations for many years. As chairman of the SOM Foundation, he established the prestigious SOM Award, providing opportunities for recently graduated architecture students. In 2007, he co-founded the Turkish Philanthropy Funds, the first Turkish community foundation in the USA, supporting civil society initiatives in Turkey. He currently serves as its chairman.

*Cornell partnered with SOM to prepare a master plan in its successful bid for the Cornell Tech Campus on Roosevelt Island in New York City.