

CAU STUDY TOUR

Echoes of Empires

A TOUR OF SOUTHERN JAPAN AND
SOUTH KOREA'S MARITIME PATHWAYS

JUNE 7-20, 2026

FEATURING ERIC TAGLIACOZZO, JOHN STAMBAUGH
PROFESSOR OF HISTORY, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Join Cornell University's Professor Eric Tagliacozzo for a journey that uncovers the deep historical and cultural connections between Japan and South Korea.

Begin in Osaka, a historic port city that played a vital role in Japan's international trade and diplomacy. Continue to Fukuoka and Nagasaki, key hubs of maritime exchange. In Nagasaki, visit Dejima Island and the Museum of History and Culture to trace Japan's earliest encounters with the outside world. In Kobe, enjoy a sake tasting and learn about the region's culinary traditions, and in Fukuoka, try your hand at making ramen in the dish's birthplace.

Fly to Seoul, where the influence of Korean ideas and traditions on Japanese culture comes to life. Participate in a traditional tea ceremony, explore bustling markets, and visit Gyeongbokgung Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with deep political and cultural significance. Then travel by train to the southern port city of Busan, where ancient customs and contemporary life coexist along the coast.

Conclude on Jeju Island, a place of striking volcanic beauty, rich culinary heritage, and centuries-old seafaring traditions maintained by the Haenyeo, female free divers. With expert insight, comfortable accommodations, and immersive experiences throughout, this program offers a thoughtful and rewarding exploration of East Asia's layered history.

A pre-tour extension to Kyoto and Nara is also available.

Study Leader

ERIC TAGLIACOZZO

Professor of History at Cornell

Eric Tagliacozzo is the John Stambaugh Professor of History at Cornell. He is an historian of Asia who works on long-distance trade and contact between Asia's regions, connecting maritime Asia through its sub-sections into a single, inter-connected web. He is the author, editor, or co-editor of fifteen books, all of them dealing with movement and cross-cultural contact across Asia's seas in different eras, and at different moments. His first monograph on the history of smuggling won the Harry J. Benda prize from the Association of Asian Studies (AAS), and he has also won the Stephen and Margery Russell Teaching Prize at Cornell. He has run a number of programs and initiatives at Cornell, and regularly teaches courses on inter-Asian contact in his classes at the university. Eric is a CAU-fan-favorite who has led multiple CAU Study Tours throughout the world.

FUKUOKA, JAPAN

Highlights

- ▶ Savor the local flavors of Japan and South Korea. In Japan, enjoy specialties like okonomiyaki, a savory pancake popular in Hiroshima, and champon, a hearty noodle dish from Nagasaki. In South Korea, sample traditional Korean barbecue and a variety of regional seafood dishes that showcase the country's rich culinary heritage.
- ▶ Spend time in unforgettable, off-the-beaten-track museums, including Nagasaki's Museum of History and Culture, where 48,000 items highlight the city's unique role as Japan's sole point of contact with foreign countries during national isolation, and the superb National Museum of Ethnology in Osaka.
- ▶ Enjoy a sake tasting in Kobe, Japan's largest sake-producing region, followed by a special welcome dinner featuring the city's renowned Wagyu beef.
- ▶ Visit Glover Garden, home to Japan's oldest wooden Western-style house, built for a Scottish merchant and industrialist who helped establish the country's first railway, develop its modern shipyard, and played a key role in the founding of Kirin Brewery.
- ▶ Learn about the ancient practice of meditation at Shōfuku-ji, Japan's oldest Zen temple, founded in 1195, and its role in the spread of Zen Buddhism and modern-day pilgrimage site.
- ▶ Experience the atmosphere and energy of local markets in both countries from the night market in Osaka to Busan's famed fish market.
- ▶ Soak in an onsen—Japan's natural hot spring bath— a quintessential cultural experience that offers a tranquil escape to relax and rejuvenate.
- ▶ Try your hand at making ramen in Fukuoka, the birthplace of tonkotsu ramen.
- ▶ Witness the powerful Changing of the Guard ceremony at Gyeongbokgung Palace, the main royal palace of Korea's Joseon dynasty and a site of profound political and cultural significance.
- ▶ Participate in a traditional tea ceremony in Seoul's historic Bukchon Hanok Village.
- ▶ Explore colorful homes and art at Gamcheon Culture Village, known as the "Machu Picchu of Busan."
- ▶ Marvel at South Korea's freediving mermaids, the Haenyeo, perpetuating the ancient tradition of diving without oxygen tanks to harvest marine life.

BULLET TRAIN

Itinerary

SUNDAY – MONDAY, JUNE 7 & 8

HOME / OSAKA

Depart home on an overnight flight to Osaka, historically known as the merchant city of Japan. Arrive on June 8 in this vast metropolis eclipsed in size only by greater Tokyo and host of the World Expo 2025. Transfer to the 5-star IMPERIAL HOTEL OSAKA, located on the banks of the Okawa River in Sakuranomiya. Gather this evening for a welcome reception.

IMPERIAL HOTEL OSAKA (R)

TUESDAY, JUNE 9

OSAKA / KOBE

Begin the day with the launch of Professor Eric Tagliacozzo's lecture series. Then enjoy a guided exploration of Osaka, including a visit to the National Museum of Ethnology in Banpaku Memorial Park. This impressive institution, which also functions as a research center and graduate school, houses a collection of more than 345,000 items representing cultures from around the world. Exhibits range from everyday tools and traditional objects to displays on Okinawan heritage and the history of the Ainu, Japan's Indigenous people.

In the afternoon, drive to nearby Kobe, one of the first Japanese ports to open to the outside world in the mid-19th century. Here, take part in a sake tasting followed by a special dinner featuring Japan's famed Wagyu beef. Return to Osaka in the evening, with the option to join a guided walk through Dotonbori, often considered the city's heart and soul. After dark, this historic district transforms as neon signs reflect along the canal and street food stalls line the walkways.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10

OSAKA / HIROSHIMA

This morning, board the Shinkansen bullet train to Hiroshima, a historic castle town that served as the region's key port for centuries. Once a military base during both World War I and II, Hiroshima is known worldwide as the first city to suffer an atomic bomb attack. Today, it stands as a symbol of resilience and peace. Explore the Atomic Bomb Dome, the Peace Memorial Museum, and the Children's Peace Monument, adorned with thousands of colorful paper cranes. You'll have time to enjoy lunch on your own before gathering in the evening to savor okonomiyaki, a beloved local dish of savory pancakes.

RIHGA ROYAL HOTEL (B,D)

THURSDAY, JUNE 11

HIROSHIMA / MIYAJIMA

Following a morning lecture by Professor Tagliacozzo, board a ferry to the sacred island of Miyajima, a UNESCO World Heritage site considered one of Japan's "three most beautiful places." Visit Itsukushima Shrine and Senjokaku (Pavilion of 1,000 Mats), built in 1587. Delight in the massive torii gate standing in the sea just offshore that appears to float at high tide. Enjoy free time and an independent lunch on the island before returning to Hiroshima for dinner at the hotel. If schedules align, perhaps see a Hiroshima Toyo Carp baseball game at the Mazda Zoom-Zoom Stadium.

RIHGA ROYAL HOTEL (B,D)

FRIDAY, JUNE 12

HIROSHIMA / FUKUOKA

Ride the rails this morning to Fukuoka, known for its culinary heritage, scenic charm, and renowned street food culture. Begin your visit at Shōfuku-ji, Japan's oldest Zen temple, founded in 1195 by the monk Eisai. It was here that Zen Buddhism first took root in Japan, deeply influencing the country's spiritual and cultural landscape, particularly among the samurai.

Later, roll up your sleeves during a hands-on lunch experience where you'll learn to prepare Fukuoka's famous tonkotsu ramen, known for its rich white broth.

Check in to the centrally located Miyako Hotel Hakata and enjoy time to relax, perhaps with a soak in the serene rooftop onsen. Dinner is on your own this evening. For those interested, you might take a casual stroll through nearby Nakasu Island, known for its lively atmosphere and traditional yatai (food stalls).

MIYAKO HOTEL HAKATA (B,L)

SATURDAY, JUNE 13

FUKUOKA / NAGASAKI

Enjoy a full-day adventure to the bustling Japanese port city of Nagasaki. Begin at the Museum of History and Culture with its vast collections focused on overseas exchange, featuring trade with Korea. Then explore Dejima, a tiny, fan-shaped island where all official, international trade took place when the country was closed (known as sakoku). Walk among carefully restored warehouses, merchant buildings, and Dutch residences that evoke this unique period in global commerce.

Stop for lunch to enjoy a bowl of champon, a popular and hearty Japanese noodle dish that originated in Nagasaki. Spend the afternoon exploring Glover Garden, a serene garden and museum set on a hillside overlooking Nagasaki Harbor. Once the neighborhood of European residents during the Meiji era, the grounds are dotted with Western-style homes that reflect the city's international past. Visit the former residence of Scottish merchant Thomas Glover, the oldest Western-style wooden house in Japan, and learn about his key role in the country's modernization. Return to Fukuoka for a group dinner and, if you wish, a relaxing soak in the hotel's hot spring baths.

MIYAKO HOTEL HAKATA (B,L,D)

SUNDAY, JUNE 14

FUKUOKA / SEOUL

Fly this morning to Seoul, the political and cultural center of South Korea. Begin with a guided tasting tour at Gwangjang Market, one of the city's oldest and most beloved markets, known for its traditional offerings and expansive array of local specialties.

Then witness the colorful Changing of the Guard ceremony, performed since 1469 at Gyeongbokgung Palace, the largest of the Five Grand Palaces of the Joseon Dynasty. Often referred to as the "Palace of Shining Happiness," it offers a powerful glimpse into Korea's royal heritage. Later, check in to THE PLAZA SEOUL, AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION, ideally located in the city center. This evening, gather for a group dinner featuring Korean barbecue and an array of traditional side dishes.

THE PLAZA SEOUL, AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION (B,L,D)

BUKCHON HANOK VILLAGE

JEJU ISLAND

NAGASAKI

MONDAY, JUNE 15

SEOUL

After breakfast, begin the day with a lecture by Professor Tagliacozzo, followed by a walking tour through the traditional alleyways of Seoul's Bukchon Hanok Village. Once home to nobility and high-ranking officials, this historic neighborhood has been beautifully preserved and reflects over 600 years of Korean history. Enjoy lunch followed by a traditional tea ceremony to complete the experience. Return to the hotel in the afternoon, with the remainder of the day and dinner at your leisure—whether you choose to explore more of the city on your own or unwind and enjoy the hotel's amenities.

THE PLAZA SEOUL, AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION (B,L)

TUESDAY, JUNE 16

SEOUL / BUSAN

This morning, travel by high-speed train to Busan, South Korea's second-largest city and busiest port. Busan blends natural beauty, rich urban character, and deep cultural roots to create a uniquely compelling destination. Begin with a visit to Gamcheon Culture Village, a hillside neighborhood known for its brightly painted homes, winding alleys, murals, and art installations. Often referred to as the "Machu Picchu of Busan," it offers sweeping views and a uniquely immersive experience. Enjoy free time for lunch and independent exploration before checking in to the 5-star Grand Josun Busan, ideally located on Haeundae Beach, one of Korea's most iconic stretches of coastline. Later, gather for a group dinner featuring local Busan specialties.

GRAND JOSUN BUSAN (B,D)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17

BUSAN

Begin the day with a final lecture by Professor Tagliacozzo, then explore Jagalchi

Market, South Korea's largest seafood market, where most vendors are women. This market offers a fascinating glimpse into Busan's culinary culture and coastal traditions.

From there, explore the modern wave of Korean pop culture that has captured global attention. Visit a K-pop fan experience center to better understand the worldwide phenomenon, then continue to filming locations made famous by K-dramas, including the scenic Taejongdae Lighthouse. Stop at a themed café where locals gather to enjoy drinks inspired by their favorite shows. Finally, explore the world of Korean beauty with a visit to Spa Land in Centum City, a luxurious wellness destination offering a wide array of skincare and relaxation experiences.

Dinner this evening is at leisure, with time to explore Busan's dynamic dining scene on your own.

GRAND JOSUN BUSAN (B,L)

TEA CEREMONY

THURSDAY, JUNE 18

BUSAN / JEJU ISLAND

Take a short morning flight to Jeju Island, widely known as the “Hawaii of Korea.” Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Biosphere Reserve, and Global Geopark, Jeju holds the rare distinction of being a “triple crown” site within UNESCO’s classifications.

Upon arrival, journey to Hallasan National Park to explore the dramatic landscapes surrounding South Korea’s highest peak. Enjoy guided walks through volcanic terrain featuring lava formations, waterfalls, and sweeping panoramic views. Afterward, unwind at one of Jeju’s pristine beaches, known for their soft sand and crystal-clear waters.

Later, check in to the 5-star Shilla Jeju resort, located along the coast. Enjoy some free time to relax or explore the resort’s surroundings before gathering for an evening barbecue featuring one of Jeju’s local delicacies: black pork.

THE SHILLA JEJU (B,D)

FRIDAY, JUNE 19

JEJU ISLAND

Today, experience the Haenyeo, Jeju’s legendary female free divers who have been sustainably harvesting shellfish and seaweed from the island’s coastal waters for generations. These remarkable women dive without oxygen tanks, relying on traditional techniques passed down through matrilineal lines. Their environmentally mindful practices have not only sustained their communities but also preserved the delicate marine ecosystem around Jeju. Honored by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage since 2016, the Haenyeo continue to inspire, most recently featured in the 2024 film The Last of the Sea Women. Savor a lunch prepared with the day’s fresh catch, celebrating their legacy and ongoing contribution to Jeju’s cultural identity.

Continue to Manjanggul Cave, the island’s largest lava tube and a striking remnant of ancient volcanic activity. Return to the hotel for a leisurely final afternoon, with time to relax or enjoy the resort’s offerings. This evening, toast to your journey with a festive farewell dinner.

THE SHILLA JEJU (B,L,D)

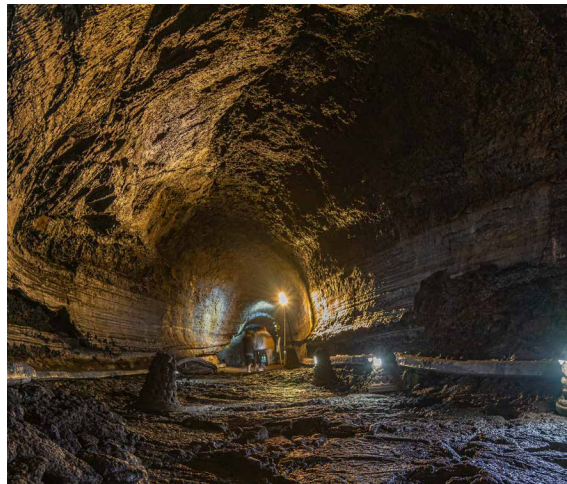

SATURDAY, JUNE 20

JEJU ISLAND / HOME

After breakfast, transfer to Jeju International Airport for your flights home.

(B)

MANJANGGUL CAVE

GAMCHEON CULTURE VILLAGE

Pre-Trip Extension to Kyoto and Nara

THURSDAY – FRIDAY, JUNE 4 & 5

HOME / ARRIVE OSAKA / KYOTO

Depart the U.S. on an overnight flight to Kansai International Airport (KIX) or Itami International Airport (ITM) in Osaka, arriving on June 5. Transfer to Kyoto and check in to the elegant THE WESTIN MIYAKO KYOTO, a historic hotel dating back to 1890, recently updated to include spacious natural hot spring baths. Enjoy the remainder of the day at your leisure to rest or explore the city independently. Dinner is on your own this evening, with the flexibility to choose from a wide range of local dining options.

THE WESTIN MIYAKO KYOTO

SATURDAY, JUNE 6

KYOTO

Begin your exploration of Kyoto with visits to two iconic sites: the Temple of the Golden Pavilion (Kinkaku-ji), known for its stunning pavilion covered in bright gold leaf, and Ryoan-ji, famous for its serene Zen rock garden. After a lunch featuring local Kyoto specialties, continue to the striking Miho Museum in the village of Shiga. Designed by architect I.M. Pei, the museum is seamlessly built into a mountainside and surrounded by breathtaking views. Its collections include traditional Japanese art alongside Asian and Western antiquities. Return to Kyoto in the evening to enjoy a dinner showcasing more of the city's culinary delights.

THE WESTIN MIYAKO KYOTO (B,L,D)

SUNDAY, JUNE 7

KYOTO

Depart early this morning for Fushimi Inari Shrine, famous for its 10,000 vibrant red torii gates that form a winding path stretching over 2.5 miles up Inari Mountain. Next, head to Nishiki Market, known as Kyoto's kitchen, for a guided walk along the bustling five-block shopping street filled with more than one hundred shops and eateries. Continue to Nijo Castle, built in 1603 and designated a National Treasure, known for its intricate wall paintings and "nightingale" floors that chirp to warn of intruders. Conclude the day at Kiyomizudera, the temple of "pure water," where pilgrims have come for over 1,000 years to pray to the 11-headed Kannon statue and drink from the sacred spring. The main hall's nail-less verandah offers stunning views of Kyoto. The evening is at leisure, with dinner on your own.

THE WESTIN MIYAKO KYOTO (B,L)

MONDAY, JUNE 8

KYOTO / NARA / OSAKA

Check out of THE WESTIN MIYAKO KYOTO and transfer to the ancient city of Nara, Japan's capital from 710 to 784 AD. Stroll through the peaceful grounds of Todai-ji, one of Japan's most famous and historically significant temples, home to Daibutsu, the Great Buddha. In Nara Park, encounter the famous free-roaming deer, known to bow to visitors as a charming gesture. Then explore the extensive collection of Japanese Buddhist art at the Nara National Museum. Continue on to Osaka and check in to the 5-star IMPERIAL HOTEL OSAKA, situated on the banks of the Okawa River. This evening, meet your fellow travelers from the main tour at the welcome reception.

It involves moderate physical activity, including walking one to two miles daily through city streets, historic sites, markets, and museums, often with extended periods of standing. Participants should be prepared for uneven surfaces such as cobblestones, dirt paths, hills, and stairs that may not have handrails. In some instances, elevators are unavailable, and stairs may lack handrails. Walking uphill or downhill for up to 30 minutes without stopping may be required. Outdoor activities may include standing for up to two hours with limited shade and seating.

Participants will be required to remove their shoes while visiting temples, shrines, and a number of other sites.

The itinerary includes travel by high-speed trains, short flights, and some ferry rides, requiring participants to manage luggage and transfers efficiently. Participants must be in active good health and able to navigate these demands independently. All participants will be required to adhere to safety and sanitation protocols set forth by the tour operator, local staff, and host country laws. If the tour manager determines that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final.

GROUP SIZE:

This program is exclusive to Cornell University and is limited to 24 participants.

TRAVEL INSURANCE:

Insurance for trip cancellation and interruption, medical problems, baggage loss and delays, etc., is highly recommended. Cancellation policies that apply are included in this brochure. Information about travel insurance will be sent to confirmed participants.

A NOTE ABOUT RATES:

Program rates are based upon current fuel prices, taxes, tariffs, and a minimum number of participants. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. If there are significant changes, details and costs will be advised prior to departure.

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

RESERVATIONS & PAYMENTS:

An initial deposit of $1,000 per person is required to reserve space on this program. You may reserve online at (booking link coming soon) or by completing the reservation form included in this brochure. Submit your form by email to res@criteriontravel.com, by mail to Criterion Travel, 4250 SW Hall Blvd., Beaverton, OR 97005, or by fax to (650) 560-6400.

Final payment is due by March 9, 2026. For reservations made after this date, full payment is required at the time of booking. Final payment may be made by check, bank transfer, or credit card (a 2% processing fee applies to credit card payments).

CANCELLATIONS &
REFUNDS:

Upon payment of the $1,000 per person deposit, all reservations are subject to the cancellation provisions set forth below and by which the passenger agrees to be bound. Cancellations shall not be in effect until they are received in writing and confirmed by Criterion Travel. Deposits are refundable (less a $250 per person admin fee) if written notice of cancellation is received within 30 days of booking; after that, deposits are 100% nonrefundable. For cancellations after final payment deadline: All payments are 100% nonrefundable, regardless of booking date. Trip cancellation insurance is strongly recommended. NOTE: Neither Cornell University nor Criterion Travel, the tour operator, accepts liability for any airline cancellation penalties incurred with the purchase of non-refundable tickets.

TRAVEL SAFETY POLICY:

While Cornell is pleased to facilitate travel opportunities for its alumni and friends with tour operators that specialize in high-quality educational travel, please be aware that Cornell does not conduct, manage, or operate these travel experiences, or act as an agent for travelers interested in tours. Tour operators and travelers are responsible for making their own safety decisions concerning this travel, and, as a facilitator between travelers and the tour operators with whom travelers make arrangements for completing travel, Cornell's role and liability are strictly limited. Specific tour operator and national health and safety protocols will apply to each trip, and travelers should review all protocols and trip terms and conditions, including terms and conditions regarding cancellations, refunds, health and safety, and insurance prior to making a reservation. Cornell is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements or for losses, expenses, damages, or injuries resulting from travel.

ITINERARY CHANGES:

The itinerary presented for this tour is subject to modification and change by Cornell University and Criterion Travel. Every reasonable effort will be made to operate the program as planned; however, should unforeseen world events and conditions require the itinerary to be altered, Cornell University and the tour operator reserve the right to do so for the safety and best interest of the group. Any extra expenses incurred in this situation are the responsibility of the participant.
