

CORNELL VOLUNTEERISM

MAKING AN IMPACT ON YOUR CAREER

Cornell Volunteers list their volunteer activity on their professional resume

Volunteering is a great way to show your leadership skills and care for the community!

"Through my [volunteer role], I was connected with a fellow alumna who referred me to a job at her company, where I ended up working for 3 years."

—Julia Buffinton '14

Want to learn more about Cornell Alumni Career support?

alumni.cornell.edu/alumni-career-support/

Need a hand editing your resume to include your volunteer experience?

Check out this blog post courtesy of Let's Eat, Grandma, a professional resume writing service founded by alumni Chris '14 and Matt '17 Villanueva!

letseatgrandma.com/blog/volunteer-work-on-a-resume/

"Choose an opportunity that builds on your interests and passions—and don't be afraid to sign up for something totally outside your wheelhouse... I volunteered on a whim at the 5 year Reunion. Best decision I ever made! It introduced me to some of my closest friends, and helped me feel a sense of connection to Cornell."

—Julie Vultaggio '02

Think it might be time to add Cornell volunteering to your resume?

alumni.cornell.edu/volunteer/

Thank you to our current volunteers!

