

Dear Classmates,

One of our favorite Cornell songs opens with the line, "I wake at night and think I hear remembered chimes," and ends with the hope that "I . . . may tread the Hill again."

You can "tread the Hill again" at our 60th Reunion in June.

Class events include Thursday night dinner at Mews and a reception and dinner at Duffield Hall on Friday evening and at the Statler on Saturday. On Friday morning, learn more about the class's outstanding photography collection at the Johnson Museum and our most recent additions. Check out the last page of this brochure for more events. There will also be plenty of time to hang out at Mews and to enjoy good meals and being together.

Our class headquarters is Mews Hall on North Campus. There will be quick check-in and help with luggage. Mews is air-cooled and has an elevator and single-sex bathrooms. The dorm towels that Cornell provides are not luxurious. You may want to bring your own and a robe to wear to cross the hall to the shower. There are refrigerators on every floor. Buses will run continuously throughout campus and accessible transportation will be available upon request. There will be class-specific busing and vehicles, as well as a golf cart to help get classmates from the Mews entrance to our '62 bus stop.

Be ready for any kind of weather. June in Ithaca runs the gamut from hot to downright cold and wet (although it is usually beautiful).

Call your old, dear classmates and get them to join you for Reunion. Visit the Cornell directory at <https://cornellconnect.cornell.edu/> to find contact information on fellow classmates. You can also reach out to Jack Loose (jackdloose@gmail.com) and Cathy Bomberger (cathybomb@gmail.com) for help.

We look forward to seeing you in June.

There is no charge for children who do not need a bed (sleep in porta-crib, on the floor, etc.) and stay in a parent's room.

When is check-in/check-out?

Check-in begins Thursday at noon and all classmates must check out by noon Sunday.

Can I get a room near my friends?

We can try! We will pre-assign rooms; you may request to room near someone when you register and we will do our best to accommodate your request on a first-come, first-served basis.

I have special medical or mobility needs—is it practical for me to stay in the residence halls?

Yes! To communicate specific medical or mobility needs, please contact your class registration chair by May 27.

Are there hotel rooms available in Ithaca during Reunion?

A small number of hotel rooms are being held for our class on a first-come, first-served basis at the Statler Hotel and the Best Western. Please keep in mind they may be limited at this point. Call the hotel directly for information and be sure to ask for our class block. Statler: 800-541-2501, Best Western: 607-272-6100.

3. REUNION WITH THE FAMILY/CHILDREN

Reunion is a family event, and there are an exciting range of university activities planned for everyone, including future Cornellians! See the childcare section of the Reunion website (alumni.cornell.edu/reunion/childcare) for more details about activities and childcare options.

4. MAKE A GIFT IN HONOR OF OUR 60TH REUNION CAMPAIGN

Every classmate who makes a gift to Cornell before June 30 is part of our Reunion Campaign. Although we do hope you'll choose to designate all or part of your gift to one of the Annual Funds, each gift to Cornell, regardless of amount or designation, counts in our class totals and helps support current and future Cornellians. You can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give, or by calling the Cornell Annual Fund at 1-800-279-3099. We plan to announce our class totals during Reunion Weekend and we want to make sure your gift is included, so please don't delay.
