Dear Classmates,

Two years ago, plans were already in place for the Class of 1950 to celebrate its 70th Reunion in June 2020. Perhaps you were one of the 21 classmates who in March had already committed to returning to campus to be a part of the major milestone celebration.

Alas, Covid brought our plans to a screeching halt! Now the good news! With Class President Jim Brandt leading the charge, we have a special and unique opportunity to celebrate our 70th Reunion on campus—two years after the fact—in June 2022. The dates are June 9–12. To help persuade you that Ezra's remarkable university is where you should be on June 9–12, the class is offering several attractive incentives.

Each classmate will receive the complete meal/registration package for $100 compliments of the Class. Additionally, one accompanying guest (spouse, child, companion, caregiver) of each classmate will receive the meal/registration package at half-price—a $240 value.

Additionally, for classmates staying at either the Statler Hotel or Best Western University Inn, the Class will cover the cost of one night for a two-night stay, or two nights covered by the Class for a three-night stay. Located less than a mile from campus, the Best Western offers free shuttle service to and from campus.

Our staff liaison, Brenda Canniff, in Cornell's Office of Alumni Affairs, has been helping to arrange an interesting, informative, and satisfying weekend for us. Any Reunion questions may be directed to Brenda at 607-255-1916; or email her at brenda.canniff@cornell.edu.

The Statler Hotel will be our headquarters, and all class meals will be served there—joined by the classes of 1947 and 1952. In 2019 almost 6,000 enthusiastic Cornellians from 47 states and 33 countries attended the last on-campus Reunion. Don't delay! Register NOW for the unique history-making opportunity given especially to the Class of 1950.

Looking forward to greeting you on campus in June!

All the best,

Ben Williams
