Dear Classmate,

Happy 35th anniversary!

We know that the past two years have proved a challenge, but we have learned to lean on each other to get through, and we can think of no better way to make us feel great than to get together for Reunion, in person, in Ithaca.

Cornell has been resilient during these times, and we are working to make Reunion as safe as possible for our classmates. We have also worked diligently to make our gathering affordable, but to be upfront, we have been faced with many challenges. Still, we have done our utmost to ensure you have a great time.

Our Reunion headquarters will be in the Townhouse Community on North Campus, which opened our senior year. However, since we always set Reunion attendance records, we may be housed in other dorms as well. Wherever you stay, whether on campus or elsewhere in the area, we have a great schedule of events planned, plus plenty of opportunities to explore the ever-changing campus.

We have heard your feedback from our past Reunions about what you liked and what can be improved. For those of you who arrive by Thursday, we’ll again offer some “Ithaca comfort food” for dinner at our Townhouse headquarters so that you can sample some of your favorite foods from your time on the Hill. On Friday night we’ll have dinner once again at Okenshield’s, with dessert on the Willard Straight Terrace to enjoy the sunset. We’ll end festivities on Saturday night with an ’80s dance party back at headquarters (a huge hit at our 30th). And there will be ice cream at headquarters every night. Plus, we have a special class forum on Saturday afternoon and a Saturday night dinner celebration on the Ag Quad.

We will continue to make our schedule as flexible as possible. In addition to offering you lunch on your own all weekend (to take advantage of local eateries or simply CU for Lunch), many of you have told us that you often don’t join the class breakfasts, since you attend college or affinity breakfasts or simply skip it. So our breakfasts this year are optional, but if you decide to join us for morning meals, it will be in the new Toni Morrison Hall dining room every morning, right by the Townhouses.

Toni Morrison Hall is one of two new residence halls that opened this past fall, with three additional halls opening in August on North Campus. These are among the many new additions to the campus in the past few years, and we’ll give you time to explore them as well as to re-visit some of your favorite places.

We’re so looking forward to seeing you. We know this will be incredible weekend for all.

Housing FAQs

Please see the campus housing FAQ section of the Reunion website for full details.

What’s included in the room fee?
The university provides bath towels, wash cloths, soap, hangers, bed linens, a pillow, a water glass, and a daily towel and wash cloth exchange. Daily housekeeping service is not provided. There is no charge for children who do not need a bed (sleep in porta-crib, on the floor, etc.) and stay in a parent’s room.

When is check-in/check-out?
Check-in begins Thursday at noon and all classmates must check out by noon Sunday.

Can I get a room near my friends?
We can try! We will pre-assign rooms; you may request to room near someone when you register and we will do our best to accommodate your request on a first-come, first-served basis. Please note that families are given priority for housing requests.

I have special medical or mobility needs—is it practical for me to stay in the residence halls?
Yes! To communicate specific medical or mobility needs, please contact your class registration chair by May 27.

Are there hotel rooms available in Ithaca during Reunion?
A limited number of rooms in several hotels have been blocked for alumni returning to Cornell. Please keep in mind that availability may be limited at this point. Review the hotel information on the Cornell Reunion website (alumni.cornell.edu/come-back/reunion/lodging/), and call your favorite hotel directly for a reservation on a first-come, first-served basis. Be sure to ask for the Reunion block.

3. REUNION WITH THE FAMILY/CHILDREN

Reunion is a family event, and there are an exciting range of university activities planned for everyone, including future Cornellians! See the childcare section of the Reunion website (alumni.cornell.edu/reunion/childcare) for more details about activities and childcare options.

4. MAKE A GIFT IN HONOR OF OUR 35TH REUNION CAMPAIGN

Every classmate who makes a gift to Cornell before June 30 is part of our Reunion Campaign. Although we do hope you’ll choose to designate all or part of your gift to one of the Annual Funds, each gift to Cornell, regardless of amount or designation, counts in our class totals and helps support current and future Cornellians. You can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give, or by calling the Cornell Annual Fund at 1-800-279-3099. We plan to announce our class totals during Reunion Weekend and we want to make sure your gift is included, so please don’t delay.
