Dear 1963 classmates,

In just a few months, we will be rapidly approaching a major milestone in our relationship with Cornell: It’s our 60th Reunion, June 8-11, 2023. Hard to believe, isn’t it?

We’re looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible joining our celebration and enjoying the festivities on campus. It doesn’t matter whether it has been 60 years or simply a month ago that you were taking in the scenes on the Hill. We want to see you back on campus, and I’m sure your Cornell friends will, too. And what a wonderful time to make new Cornell acquaintances.

Our class headquarters will be in a newly constructed and air-conditioned building on North Campus—Barbara McClintock Hall. You can leave those fans behind this time. Restrooms will still be down the hall with each location designated for either men or women.

Many of our meals will be within the North Campus area, so it will be convenient for socializing and catching up with classmates. There will be various bus routes and the opportunity for more specific class transportation as the needs arise. Parking, for those who drive to campus, will be in an adjacent private lot just for McClintock Hall. Could things be more convenient?

As for activities being planned for our class, there will be morning informal conversations led by Cornell staff. Plan to join the class for a campus bus tour with narrated updates. For the more ambitious, take a guided walk around Beebe Lake. Be sure to note your choices carefully when you register, as some are limited in number. Our premier event will be an upscale dinner at Statler Hall with some fun entertainment. (No, gentlemen, you do not need a tie; ladies, anything goes.) All this to attract your presence on campus, plus all the usual signature university events.

If you haven’t heard yet, our class has an exciting new project for our Reunion class gift that continues the philosophy of our previous class’ donations: supporting students. Please be sure to read a further description on page three of this packet.

Come back in June. We look forward to seeing you.

Housing FAQs
Please see the campus housing FAQ section of the Reunion website for full details.

What’s included in the room fee?
The university provides bath towels, wash cloths, soap, hangers, bed linens, a pillow, a water glass, and a daily towel and wash cloth exchange. Daily housekeeping service is not provided. There is no charge for children who do not need a bed (sleep in porta-crib, on the floor, etc.) and stay in a parent’s room.

When is check-in/check-out?
Check-in begins Thursday at noon and all classmates must check out by noon Sunday.

Can I get a room near my friends?
We can try! We will pre-assign rooms; you may request to room near someone when you register and we will do our best to accommodate your request on a first-come, first-served basis.

I have special medical or mobility needs—is it practical for me to stay in the residence halls?
Yes! To communicate specific medical or mobility needs, please contact your class registration chair by May 26.

Are there hotel rooms available in Ithaca during Reunion?
A small number of hotel rooms are being held for our class on a first-come, first-served basis at the Statler Hotel and the Best Western. Please keep in mind they may be limited at this point. Call the hotel directly for information and be sure to ask for our class block. Statler: 800-541-2501, Best Western: 607-272-6100.

3. MAKE A GIFT IN HONOR OF OUR 60TH REUNION CAMPAIGN

Every classmate who makes a gift to Cornell before June 30 is part of our Reunion Campaign. Each gift to Cornell, regardless of amount or designation, counts in our class totals and helps support current and future Cornellians. This could mean a gift to the Annual Fund or to a specific cause. This year, in honor of our 60th Reunion, we have set up a special gift fund to support student mental health on campus. If you would like to donate to this important class gift and help us reach our goal, you can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give and referencing The Class of 1963 Fund to Support Student Mental Health. If you have questions about this class fund, you can contact Colleen Drozd at cdrozd@cornell.edu. We plan to announce our class totals during Reunion Weekend and we want to make sure your gift is included, so please don’t delay.
