

Dear classmates,

We are looking forward to seeing you to celebrate our 60th Reunion. The festivities begin on Thursday, June 6, and continue until Sunday, June 9. It doesn't matter whether it has been 60 years, or simply a month ago that you were taking in the scenes on the Hill; we want to see you back on campus, and I'm sure your Cornell friends do, too! And should you be coming on your own, please remember that in 1960 we were all welcomed solo at Cornell. We encourage singles to attend.

Our class headquarters will be in a new dorm on North Campus—Barbara McClintock Hall. You will enjoy air-conditioning, elevators, and bathrooms designated for men or women down the hall near your room. Age does have its privileges! University bus routes to events and class-arranged transportation will be available, as will accessible transportation upon request.

In addition, we will have a spacious gathering room for class breakfasts, which doubles as a wonderful place to just relax. There, you can also challenge your brain by working on a 1,000-piece puzzle created with a collage of photos from previous Reunions, as well as iconic Cornell scenes and buildings. The puzzle was designed by classmate Alice Friedenson with photos taken by Bob Friedenson.

On Saturday afternoon, we will hold a special JFK Award program that you will not want to miss. For 60 years, our class JFK Award has been awarded to outstanding graduating seniors intending to make a career in public service. Since our graduation, the award has been administered by the Class of 1964 JFK Committee. To ensure the award continues in perpetuity, oversight of the award was transferred to the JFK Alumni Board in May 2023. You will meet members of the board and other JFK Award alumni, and will hear accounts of how receiving this award impacted their lives.

Major Reunion events include A Conversation with President Martha E. Pollack, the always-challenging Olin Lecture, entertainment by the Chorus and Glee Club, and, of course, Cornelliana Night, fraternity and sorority receptions, a memorial service at Sage Chapel, and, if you are up to it, tent parties.

Enjoy the old, admire the new, and return home refreshed and inspired by this weekend at the scene of our youth. It's easy to register—just turn the page for more information (please note: registration is online only). Bring a spouse, bring a friend, or join our group of singles and celebrate your 60 years of being a Cornellian.

Every classmate who makes a gift to Cornell before June 30 is part of our Reunion Campaign. You can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give, or by calling the Cornell Annual Fund at 1-800-279-3099. We also hope you'll consider making a gift to our class legacy, the '64 JFK Award, by visiting cornel.ly/jfkaward.
