Dear classmates,

We are looking forward to seeing you to celebrate our 60th Reunion. The festivities begin on Thursday, June 6, and continue until Sunday, June 9. It doesn't matter whether it has been 60 years, or simply a month ago that you were taking in the scenes on the Hill; we want to see you back on campus, and I’m sure your Cornell friends do, too! And should you be coming on your own, please remember that in 1960 we were all welcomed solo at Cornell. We encourage singles to attend.

Our class headquarters will be in a new dorm on North Campus—Barbara McClintock Hall. You will enjoy air-conditioning, elevators, and bathrooms designated for men or women down the hall near your room. Age does have its privileges! University bus routes to events and class-arranged transportation will be available, as will accessible transportation upon request.

In addition, we will have a spacious gathering room for class breakfasts, which doubles as a wonderful place to just relax. There, you can also challenge your brain by working on a 1,000-piece puzzle created with a collage of photos from previous Reunions, as well as iconic Cornell scenes and buildings. The puzzle was designed by classmate Alice Friedenson with photos taken by Bob Friedenson.

On Saturday afternoon, we will hold a special JFK Award program that you will not want to miss. For 60 years, our class JFK Award has been awarded to outstanding graduating seniors intending to make a career in public service. Since our graduation, the award has been administered by the Class of 1964 JFK Committee. To ensure the award continues in perpetuity, oversight of the award was transferred to the JFK Alumni Board in May 2023. You will meet members of the board and other JFK Award alumni, and will hear accounts of how receiving this award impacted their lives.

Major Reunion events include A Conversation with President Martha E. Pollack, the always-challenging Olin Lecture, entertainment by the Chorus and Glee Club, and, of course, Cornelliana Night, fraternity and sorority receptions, a memorial service at Sage Chapel, and, if you are up to it, tent parties.

Enjoy the old, admire the new, and return home refreshed and inspired by this weekend at the scene of our youth. It's easy to register—just turn the page for more information (please note: registration is online only). Bring a spouse, bring a friend, or join our group of singles and celebrate your 60 years of being a Cornellian.

Package FAQs

What does the registration fee include?
All packages include class receptions and meals, tent parties, class shuttles, headquarters refreshments, and most university events.

What is NOT automatically included?
CU for Lunch, Cornell Child Care Center services, some athletic events and concerts.

Can I celebrate with more than one class or group?
Yes! Register with the class or group with whom you wish to be housed and will participate most with. Contact your class/group registration chair to share which events hosted by another class or group you’d like to add to your registration.

What if I register and then can’t come?
We are happy to offer refunds if you cancel on or before May 24. After this date a refund of registration packages fees may not be possible.

Can I register when I get there?
Yes, you can—but there are many advantages to registering in advance, including lower fees (by May 15), expedited check-in, better chance of getting a room assignment near friends, and more. Please note: Cash payments will not be accepted. Check and credit/debit card payments are the only acceptable payment methods for Reunion purchases.
Housing FAQs
Please see the campus housing FAQ section of the Reunion website for full details.

What's included in the room fee?
The university provides bath towels, wash cloths, soap, hangers, bed linens, a pillow, a water glass, and a daily towel and wash cloth exchange. Daily housekeeping service is not provided. There is no charge for children who do not need a bed (sleep in porta-crib, on the floor, etc.) and stay in a parent's room.

When is check-in/check-out?
Check-in begins Thursday at noon and all classmates must check out by noon Sunday.

Can I get a room near my friends?
We can try! We will pre-assign rooms; you may request to room near someone when you register and we will do our best to accommodate your request on a first-come, first-served basis.

What if I need to cancel my housing registration?
Conference and Events Services is happy to offer refunds if you cancel on or before May 24. After this time a refund may not be possible.

I have special medical or mobility needs—is it practical for me to stay in the residence halls?
For many guests, the answer is, yes! To communicate specific medical or mobility needs, please contact your class registration chair by May 24.

Are there hotel rooms available in Ithaca during Reunion?
A small number of hotel rooms are being held for our class on a first-come, first-served basis at the Statler Hotel and the Best Western. Please keep in mind they may be limited at this point. Call the hotel directly for information and be sure to ask for our class block. Statler: 800-541-2501, Best Western: 607-272-6100.

3. MAKE A GIFT IN HONOR OF OUR 60TH REUNION CAMPAIGN
Every classmate who makes a gift to Cornell before June 30 is part of our Reunion Campaign. Although we do hope you'll choose to designate all or part of your gift to one of the Annual Funds, each gift to Cornell, regardless of amount or designation, counts in our class totals and helps support current and future Cornellians. You can make your gift by visiting giving.cornell.edu/give, or by calling the Cornell Annual Fund at 1-800-279-3099. We also hope you'll consider making a gift to our class legacy, the '64 JFK Award, by visiting cornell.ly/jfkaward. We plan to announce our class totals during Reunion Weekend and we want to make sure your gift is included, so please don't delay.
