

Dear classmates,

How long has it been since you were last on our glorious campus? Well, it is time to visit again on our 75th Reunion—egads, our 75th!—to see the new buildings, to see some of your classmates, and find out what plans are afoot as we hear from President Michael I. Kotlikoff.

Our headquarters will be in the Statler Hotel (800-541-2501) and your class treasury is picking up all your expenses as well as that of one guest, except for one night's room stay in the Statler. If you are staying all three nights, two of those nights are gratis for you and one guest, as well as registration fees and all meals. Your basic cost is your transportation to Ithaca and one night of hotel stay.

Alternate housing is available at the Best Western University Inn, which offers a shuttle service to and from campus throughout the entire weekend, and we'll cover costs in the same way.

So far, seven classmates have reserved a room at the Statler. If you have any difficulty reserving space, call Jim at 312-787-6232.

There will be plenty of time to talk with fellow classmates, visit campus, attend a Reunion Service of Remembrance and Thanksgiving, take in the Olin Lecture at Bailey Hall (with student athletes who participated in the '24 Olympics), listen to Chorus and Glee Club concerts, hear the State of the University Address from President Michael I. Kolikoff, and enjoy Cornelliana Night, plus attend Greek receptions. Shuttles and accessible transportation will be available.

Each day offers a variety of stimulating events, with plenty of time for reconnecting and reminiscing, topped off with good food and Cornell companionship.

There is only one 75th! We hope to see you this June.
