Creating an EIN for your club

You will need some information about your club and approximately 10-15 minutes to complete the online document in one sitting. Please note, you cannot save it and finish it later: https://sa.www4.irs.gov/modiein/individual/index.jsp

You will need a social security number; this can be the treasurer or president, or any other board member. These pictures will show you the answers to select for the questions. If your club or association is a current 501(c)3 please have that paperwork handy.

Any questions filling about out this application are best answered by the IRS. Chat or speak with a website customer service representative or send an email message or comment. Website assistance is available Monday-Friday: http://www.irs.gov/uac/Navigate-IRSGov

Initial one-time action steps for Clubs:

1. Obtain an Employer Identification Number (EIN) is also known as a Federal Tax Identification Number as outlined above.
2. Become a vendor with Cornell University by submitting a W-9 form.
3. If the club does not have a local bank account, create one using the Employer Identification Number (EIN).
4. If there is an existing account, please update the account information with the EIN; removing any personal social security information currently associated with the account.
5. Submit local banking information to Cornell: bank name, address, and account name, routing and account number via an ACH form.
Steps moving forward, after Clubs are setup with EIN and bank account:
6. Clubs will continue to submit the Event Detail Form for each program.
7. Each event will have a registration site through CornellConnect, regardless of collection of funds.
8. Club leaders will now coordinate directly with venues on contracts, deposits and payments.
9. Clubs will enjoy any profits from events and likewise, will absorb any losses incurred.
10. Provide follow-up documentation of the events held on a semi-annual basis to your Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact.
11. Cash and check payments collected on site will be retained by the club. If checks are an approved online form of payment, a local address will be used for collecting those check payments.
12. Clubs and associations will pre-determine refund and cancellation policies for each event.
13. All registration confirmation emails should be reviewed by the event coordinator.
   a. Should an event have any complimentary attendees; speakers or special guests, please indicate those guests to your Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact, before the event reconciliation.
14. Unless otherwise indicated, all event registration sites will close at the time of the event. All walk-in registrations should be paid in cash or check directly to the club.
   a. Following the conclusion of each event, record all cancellations, no-shows and walk-ins on the attendance list and return to the appropriate Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact.
15. Within seven business days of your event, your Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact will provide a list of attendees and collected funds, less 3%. Once approved by the club, this list is submitted for a direct deposit payment of collected funds.
   a. If a guest has not remitted payment by the event, please follow up accordingly.
16. All board member reimbursements are remitted to the club for payment.
17. Maintain a consistent dialogue with your Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact Communication continues to be a very important factor in the club’s relationship with Cornell University and a consistent dialogue with your Alumni Affairs Regional Staff Contact is necessary to ensure all events are fully sanctioned by Cornell University.
