The Canadian Maritimes

12 days from $6,597 total price from Boston

($6,345 air & land inclusive plus $252 airline taxes and fees)

Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island make for a scenic and history-infused journey. We explore fishing villages and port cities, French fortifications and colonial British settlements, and travel to secluded Prince Edward Island and rugged Cape Breton on this classic route.

Day 1: Arrive Halifax, Nova Scotia We arrive today in Halifax, capital of the Canadian province of Nova Scotia and a bustling center of commerce and shipping. As guests' arrival times may vary greatly, we have no group activities or meals planned for today.

Day 2: Halifax/Lunenburg/South Shore This morning we encounter Nova Scotia's South Shore, setting out early for the tiny hamlet of Peggy's Cove. Our destination: Peggy's Point Lighthouse, one of Canada's most photographed landmarks, the red-and-white beacon perched on a granite outcropping. Then we continue on the coastal road to Lunenburg, a UNESCO site. Settled by the British in 1753, this historic town represents Canada's finest surviving example of a planned British town. We take a walking tour then have time for lunch on our own. Later, weather permitting, we make a photo stop in Mahone Bay, known for its three centuries-old churches. Late this afternoon, we return to Halifax for tonight's welcome dinner. B,D

Day 3: Halifax/Saint John, New Brunswick Today we travel to the scenic Annapolis Valley, a network of farms, fields, and forests lying between two mountain ranges in Nova Scotia's northwest. We stop to tour Grand Pré National Historic site, dedicated to the memory of the area's original French Acadian settlers. Next, we visit Annapolis Royal Historic Gardens, featuring a prized collection of rhododendrons, azalea, roses, and more, in a tranquil setting overlooking a tidal river valley. The gardens also showcase gardening methods, designs, and materials representing more than 400 years of Canadian history, including a reconstructed Acadian house circa 1671. Then we travel to the coastal village of Digby, the "Scallop Capital of the World," where an option for lunch will include this Maritime delicacy. Late afternoon we board a ferry and cross the Bay of Fundy to Saint John, where dinner tonight is on our own. B,L

Day 4: Saint John/St. Andrews This morning we embark on a walking tour of Saint John, the first incorporated city in present-day Canada. We begin on King Street, the steepest main street in Canada; and pass by landmarks including the Loyalist House, one of Saint John's first homes; and the Old City Market, Canada's longest-running farmer's market. Then we make our way down the coast to

We visit the historic Fortress of Louisbourg on Cape Breton Island.

St. Andrews-by-the-Sea. From here, we embark on a whale watching cruise in the Bay of Fundy, where we're on the lookout for the bay's 12 species of whales. B,D

Day 5: Saint John/Shediac We travel today to the head of the Bay of Fundy to tour Hopewell Rocks, famous for having the world's highest tides. Formed over the millennia as the seaside sandstone cliffs were slowly worn away by a combination of wind, surface water, and tide, these "Flowerpot Rocks" range from 40 to 70 feet tall. We spend time here to view the formation, then continue on to Shediac, the "Lobster Capital of the World." Here we enjoy an authentic lobster dinner on board a working lobster boat and learn about this vital industry. B,L,D

Day 6: Shediac/Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island This morning we cross the 8-mile-long Confederation Bridge connecting mainland Canada to Prince Edward Island (PEI). Many PEI residents trace their lineage back to the area's first French and English settlers, and we learn about this rich historical tradition at our first stop on the island: Village Musical Acadien, which hosts cultural events, concerts, and community theater. We continue on to Charlottetown, PEI's capital and our home for the next two nights. Known as the "Birthplace of Confederation," Charlottetown hosted the Charlottetown Conference of 1864, which paved the way for Canada's eventual independence from Britain. Our tour passes the Greek- and Roman-influenced Province House, seat of the PEI Legislature since 1847; and the Confederation Centre of the Arts, home to Canada's longest-running mainstage musical, Anne of Green Gables. B,L,D

Day 7: Prince Edward Island After a morning at leisure in Charlottetown, early this afternoon we travel to the island's scenic North Shore, where we admire the red cliffs, white-sand beaches, gently sloping dunes, and green fields of Prince Edward Island National Park. Along our drive we stop to tour the Green Gables Heritage Place, the restored 19th-century farm (and National Historic Site) that was the setting for the Anne of Green Gables novels. Then we enjoy afternoon tea at Prince Edward Island Preserve Company, a historic centerpiece in the quaint village of New Glasgow. Dinner tonight is on our own. B

Day 8: Charlottetown/Sydney, Cape Breton Island This morning we board a ferry for the return trip to the mainland then travel to Cape Breton Island, one
