Kolkata & The Ganges River

Aboard the 28-cabin Ganges Voyager

October 7 – 16, 2025

DEAR CAU FRIENDS

CAU recommends India – Kolkata & The Ganges River, because it is produced by one of CAU’s trusted partners and features esteemed faculty from Cornell’s peers. In other words, it’s an opportunity we don’t want you to miss!

From its source high in the mighty Himalayas, the holiest of rivers, Mother Ganga, flows 1,500 miles south and east through areas rarely seen by westerners, and connects to the Hooghly River through Kolkata before emptying into the Bay of Bengal. A tapestry of varied religious beliefs, devoted faith, awe-inspiring history, rich architecture, and cultural heritage spreads along the sacred riverbanks. Infused with influences of past rulers and European settlers, rich in diverse flora and fauna, and boasting incredible scenery, the Ganges and Hooghly Rivers represent the heart and soul of Indian civilization.

The journey begins in Kolkata (old Calcutta), the former capital of India during British rule from 1772 to 1911, with one night at the luxurious Taj Bengal Hotel. Learn about the fascinating history of Colonial Kolkata on a panoramic tour before embarking on a seven-night cruise aboard 28-cabin Ganges Voyager. Visit Mother Teresa’s Missionaries of Charity, then continue to Bandel, the site of the renowned Hooghly Imambara. Ride rickshaws through Kalna and admire the magnificent temples at the Rajbari Complex. Next, visit the brass-making village of Matiari, and cruise past the Battlefield of Plassey en route to the Mughul Gardens in Khush Bagh. Leisurely investigate the breathtaking temples in the quaint village of Baranagar before venturing to Hazarduari Palace and the Katra Masjid in Murshidabad. In Mayapur tour the temple headquarters of the International Society of Krishna Consciousness and the Pilgrim’s Bazaar before calling at Chandernagore, a 17th century French colony brimming with history and heritage. Conclude the voyage with a celebratory dinner and delightful cultural program before returning to Kolkata for flights home.

This educational program is co-sponsored with National Trust Tours and the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia. For those interested, there will also be a pre-tour extension in the Golden Triangle and a post-tour extension in Varanasi, Delhi, and Agra.

With limited space, we encourage you to reserve your cabin today!

Warmly,
