DEAR ALUMNI, PARENTS, AND FRIENDS,

We invite you to be among the thousands of Cornell alumni, parents and friends who view the Cornell Alumni Association (CAA) Travel Program as their first choice for memorable travel adventures. If you’re traveling with CAA before, you’ll know to expect excellent travel experiences in some of the world’s most interesting places. If our travel offerings are new to you, you’ll want to take a closer look at our upcoming trips.

Working closely with some of the world’s most highly-respected travel companies, CAA trips are not only well organized, safe, and a great value, they are filled with remarkable people. This year as we head for more than forty years, are offering themselves in the United States and around the globe.

Whether you’re ascending a sand dune by camel, strolling the cobbled streets of a French village, sailing on a remote mountain pass, or bumping postside on one of our luxury cruises, we guarantee an extraordinary journey in great company.

And that’s the reason so many Cornellians return year after year, to travel with the Cornell Alumni Association. If you, like me, simply can’t wait for your next travel adventure, I encourage you to register today for this or another of our remarkable travel offerings.

Warmly,

James A. Maaza ’88

Inspirational Moments

Explore La Marais, a historic neighborhood that is a modern-day paradise of Parisians and visitors alike. Mingle in its streets and squares, visit its historic churches, and, of course, enjoy a meal at one of its many bistros. It’s easy to find your way around with a good balance of included activities and excursions designed to explore your own pace. Travelers should be physically fit, able to climb stairs, walk a distance of at least 2 miles, and climb without effort on uneven terrain. Paris is filled with historic landmarks, world-class shopping, museums, and more as they guide you through the reservation process. These experts stand ready to answer any questions and provide the most current information. Before you go:

- Travel Consultants: These experts stand ready to answer your questions about activities, excursions, and accommodations. And, if you guide you through the reservation process.
- Passenger Service Representative: Once you have arrived, your airport ground representative is there to provide anything you need to enhance your travel experience.

Travel Information: For additional destination information and travel tips compiled by our travel experts, visit our travel tips page.

Once you arrive:

- Travel Consultants: There are two layers of top-quality professionals after the airport, making your stay a unique one.
- Tipping: Your Travel Director allows you to remember your tips to your accommodations. These high-caliber professionals may have safe and important information that you will need to return to the region. They specialize in making sure that the region is a safe one to visit. As you return to the region, they will enhance your travel experience.
